

About John T. Montford

John T. Montford is chief executive officer of JTM Consulting, LLC, a government relations firm he founded in 2010. A former active duty U.S. Marine officer, he has also served as an elected DA, a member of the Texas Senate for 14 years, and as chancellor of the Texas Tech University System. He has served as an independent director of Southwest Airlines since 2002 and currently serves as chair of its audit committee.

Prior to establishing his own firm, Montford also served as president of the Western region of AT&T Services and then as senior advisor for global public policy for General Motors Company as well as chair of the GM Foundation, and a member of the GM Executive Committee.